BERMUDA NATIONAL BIBLIOGRAPHY : 2021

A list of additions to the Bermuda National Library January to December 2021

Included are works about Bermuda and Bermudians, published both locally and abroad, works published in Bermuda on other subjects, and works published abroad by Bermudians. The Bibliography covers monographs, periodical publications, published and unpublished Government and other reports, audio-visual materials, and items in other formats when applicable.

The list is arranged according to the 23rd edition of the Dewey Decimal Classification and catalogued according to the provisions of the 2002 edition of the Anglo-American Cataloguing Rules (records created prior to 2014 for continuing resources) or Resource Description & Access (RDA). Occasionally notes have been left out or abbreviated. Full bibliographic records can be viewed in the online catalogue via the Bermuda National Library's website at www.bnl.bm.

The Bermuda national bibliography is produced on a quarterly basis with annual cumulations.

The Bermuda national bibliography is available free-of-charge online via the Bermuda National Library's website at www.bnl.bm. Printed copies of the Bibliography can be viewed in the Library.

LEGAL DEPOSIT IN BERMUDA

The Legal Deposit Act, 2008, which repeals Section 5 of the Printed Publications Act 1971, sets out the requirements regarding the deposit of new Bermuda publications in the Bermuda National Library. A small section is reproduced below:

"Delivery of copies of publications

- 3 (1) This section applies to—
- (a) a person who publishes a publication in Bermuda; and
  - (b) a person who is resident in Bermuda, or whose principal place of business is in Bermuda, and who publishes, or commissions the publishing of, a publication outside Bermuda for distribution or making available in Bermuda.
- (2) Subject to subsection (5), every person who publishes a publication shall within seven days after the date of publishing it deliver a copy of the publication, at their own expense, to the Head Librarian for deposit in the Bermuda National Library.
- (3) The copy shall be delivered in the medium in which it is published, unless another medium is prescribed."

EXPLANATION OF ENTRIES

- 1 . . . . 917.299 A
- 2 . . . . . Augustinovic, Horst.
- 3 . . . . . What you may not know about Bermuda.
Volume three / by Horst Augustinovic. –
- 4 . . . . . Hamilton, Bermuda : Print Link, [2015]
- 5 . . . . . 111 pages : illustrations (some colour),
facsimiles, maps, portraits ; 26 cm
"Written for Bermuda"--Cover.
ISBN: 9780947480080 : $24.00
- 6 . . . . . 1.Bermuda--Guidebooks. 2.Bermuda--Social life and customs. 3.Bermuda--History. I.Ti.
II.Ti.: About Bermuda.

1. The first element of this sample entry is the Dewey Decimal Classification number:

900 - GEOGRAPHY, HISTORY, AND AUXILIARY DISCIPLINES
910 Geography and Travel
917.2 Geography of and Travel in North America
917.29 Geography/Travel West Indies and Bermuda
917.299 Geography/Travel Bermuda

In other words, each Dewey Decimal number represents a subject. The Dewey number is followed by a letter of the alphabet, "A" in the above example. This letter represents the first letter of the main entry heading (usually the first letter of the author's surname).

2. The main entry heading is printed in bold type. The main entry heading in the above example is the author, Augustinovic, Horst. The "author" of a work is sometimes a Government Department or some other agency or body, e.g., in the text there are main entries like this: Bermuda. Ministry of Finance. Dept. of Statistics. Anonymous works, most works produced under editorial direction, most serials, and other works where the authorship is diffuse, are entered under the first word of the title which is not an article.
3. The title is: "What you may not know about Bermuda. Volume three." A diagonal slash "/" following the title precedes the name/s of the individual/s or organisation/s considered to be responsible for the contents of the work, e.g., authors, editors, illustrators, etc.
4. Statements relating to the publication of the item are listed next in the example. In this case, the date is enclosed in square brackets "[ ]". Square brackets are used to indicate information supplied by the cataloguer. Publication dates are recorded in square brackets when the item contains a copyright date but no publication date or if the date is obtained from somewhere other than the item in hand. The source of information in catalogue records can come from outside the document itself. If the place of publication, the publisher or the date of publication are uncertain, but there is some evidence which allows the cataloguer to make a reasonable guess, a question mark "?" is used. Therefore, the example shows that: the book was published in Hamilton, Bermuda by Print Link, in 2015.
5. The following lines vary from entry to entry but they always include statements about the size and physical description of the item. Records may also include notes about the source or contents of the materials or any other information that the cataloguer considers of importance. If the work has an International Standard Book or Serial Number (ISBN or ISSN) it is given along with the price. "No price" is used in the entries for items which are free of charge and for donations of out-of-print materials where a current market value cannot be easily determined.
6. The remainder of the record is a list of the added entries which were used by the Bermuda National Library when the book was catalogued, i.e., entries will be found under the subject headings, "Bermuda--Guidebooks," "Bermuda--Social life and customes" and "Bermuda--History" and under the titles, "What you may not know about Bermuda. Volume three" and "About Bermuda."

Horn, Simon, author.

The Bermuda railway / Simon Horn. – The Old Royal Naval Dockyard, Bermuda : National Museum of Bermuda Press, [2021]

223 pages : illustrations (some colour), facsimilies, maps, portraits ; 31 cm

""Old Rattle and Shake" ran for just 17 years, but in that time became a beloved, if contentious, fixture of the Bermuda landscape. Operating amid constant calls for replacement with motor vehicles, and never at a profit, the line finally met its end after heavy but vital wartime military use. Its legacy now survives in this comprehensive new survey by historian Simon Horn, complete with scores of rarely-seen photos and snapshots of the railway, from concept to closure."--Page 4 of cover.

Dario is used to the structure his false yet perfect life brought and this freedom puts him far out of his element. Still, he has more things to worry about. Funny, confident, and chocolate, Kevin is the friend Dario would never have before and seems to effortlessly break through all his defences. Giving in to the emotions Kevin stirs in him goes against everything Dario has been running from but now, when he no longer has to run, will he take the leap into the unknown? Does he even have a choice? The only thing that seems certain is all roads lead to Kevin."--Back cover.

This is the final instalment in the series and it picks up exactly where the previous ended. It's recommended to read this series in order as some parts are also different vantage points over the same time.

"Anxious, nervous, and a bit on edge, Dario is stepping into his new normal. Trying to embrace his true self is a daunting task: his non-relationship with his father goes further south; he can't seem to get past the walls he built to hide from himself and his parents, and the closer he gets to the goal the harder it seems to attain. Despite the depressing odds, Dario moves forward intent on taking Kevin with him. Kevin is funny, confident and all sorts of cute. He sees the greatness in Dario that Dario's friends have been trying to make him see in himself for years. Kevin finds the real Dario before even he can. The way Dario feels around Kevin is new, strange, and exciting. What they share should be fun but anxiety and Dario's old belief system threaten to kill this connection before it begins. Will his parents' influence continue to block his efforts with Kevin? Will the damage of the fake Dario undo his efforts to become whole? Is freedom only a dream and not something for him to own? These are just some of Dario's fears, but there is one truth he can latch onto; if Kevin could find the person buried deep inside of him, why couldn't he?"--Back cover.

Louis stepped in to be his father when Dario's own had failed him. Still, as the years went on and Dario sunk deeper into depression, Louis began to question if his efforts were working. Would Dario ever get better? Would he stop trying to earn the love his parents would not give? Would he ever embrace his true self and learn to love him? So many unanswered questions, but amongst all the uncertainty the biggest fear was what would happen if Louis didn't try to save him; that he might lose Dario, forever."--Back cover.

MacDonald, Thomas, author.

Here is what happened : a black man's discoveries and decisions / Thomas MacDonald. – Seattle, WA : Blue Ear Books, 2021.

vii, 251 pages : illustrations, facsimiles, portraits ; 23 cm

"Thomas was born in Bermuda in 1953 and later emigrated to the United States. While in Bermuda, Thomas attended the Bermuda Technical Institute, a boys only high school. He spent his formative years in Somerset, where he was an avid swimmer and learned to sail comet class sailboats. Thomas's work career was in TV Production, banking, then accounting for a Dutch-held insurance company. By 1984 he had become the second Bermudian to head an offshore company. While living in Bermuda, Thomas developed a passion for photography and began keeping a personal journal. Landing in Chicago in 1985, Thomas worked for Marshall Field's at its flagship department store on State Street. There he met his lifelong partner, Bill Henning. While still living in Chicago, Thomas took a job with the Bermuda Department of Tourism, and in 1998 he was promoted to head up the Boston office. The couple relocated to Salem, Massachusetts, where they still reside. In 2005 Bermuda Tourism assigned Thomas to establish an office in London. After retiring from the tourism office, Thomas worked for a decade as Director of Sales for the Hawthorne Hotel in Salem. He retired at the end of 2016."--Amazon.ca.
