INTRODUCTION

The Bermuda National Bibliography records the publishing activity of Bermuda and provides a reflection of the social, economic and cultural endeavours of this country. The bulk of these materials are obtained through Legal Deposit which allows us to maintain a permanent record of an important aspect of the Island's cultural heritage.

Legal Deposit in Bermuda

The first Legal Deposit legislation in Bermuda was The Printed Publication Act, 1971, which only covered print materials. This Act was amended by The Legal Deposit Act, 2008 which greatly broadened the scope covered.

The Legal Deposit Act, 2008, which repeals Section 5 of the Printed Publications Act 1971, sets out the requirements regarding the deposit of new Bermuda publications in the Bermuda National Library. A small section is reproduced below:

"Delivery of copies of publications

- 3 (1) This section applies to—
- (a) a person who publishes a publication in Bermuda; and
 - (b) a person who is resident in Bermuda, or whose principal place of business is in Bermuda, and who publishes, or commissions the publishing of, a publication outside Bermuda for distribution or making available in Bermuda.
- (2) Subject to subsection (5), every person who publishes a publication shall within seven days after the date of publishing it deliver a copy of the publication, at their own expense, to the Head Librarian for deposit in the Bermuda National Library.
- (3) The copy shall be delivered in the medium in which it is published, unless another medium is prescribed."

General Selection Criteria

Included are works about Bermuda and Bermudians, published both locally and abroad, works published in Bermuda on other subjects, and works published abroad by Bermudians. Emphasis is on items readily available through normal book suppliers or through the author or publisher. However, Bermuda has a small and unique publishing environment so unpublished and privately-printed titles are often deposited with the Bermuda National Library. These are included in the Bibliography.

Media Covered

The Bibliography covers monographs, periodical publications, published and unpublished Government and other reports, audio-visual materials, and items in other formats when applicable. Some theses are included; particularly those covering subjects significant to Bermuda.

Many Bermuda Government documents are only made available online as PDFs. These and other electronic documents are not included in the Bermuda National Bibliography but they are collected by the Bermuda National Library whenever possible. Some Government Departments print out their documents specifically for deposit at the Bermuda National Library. These printed copies are catalogued and included in the Bibliography.

Fiction published outside Bermuda with a Bermuda setting is not usually included unless the author has a local connection. These items may form a part of the general circulation collection but are not considered to be a part of the Bermudiana Collection so do not appear in the Bibliography.

Posters, tourist and promotional fliers, event programmes and other ephemera are not usually included in the Bibliography even though representative examples of these kinds of publications may be collected by the Library.

Cataloguing Codes and Standards of Description

The list is arranged according to the 23rd edition of the Dewey Decimal Classification. New materials are catalogued according to the provisions of Resource Description & Access (RDA). Records for continuing publications originally created prior to 2014 follow the Anglo-American Cataloguing Rules, Second edition, 2002 revision (updated 2003-2005).

Subject headings are derived from an in-house format for local authority records which is based on the Sears List of Subject Headings and the LC Name Authority File.

Occasionally notes have been left out or abbreviated. Full bibliographic records (including MARC format) can be viewed in the online catalogue via the Bermuda National Library's website at www.bnl.bm.

Power in your journey : 7 philosophies to bounce back stronger, every time / Salintae Tuzo-Smith. — [Bermuda] : [Salintae Tuzo-Smith], [2023]

"Power is not found after the fight is over or when life is easy. It's found along the way and during difficult times. Overcoming the question of "Why me?" and turning it into the statement of "Why not me?" took time, tears and understanding. Over the years, Salintae understood that her circumstances were not changing. It felt like her illness was constantly trying to break her, but it never could. Life can be perceived as a fight and either you learn to take a hit or your stay stuck on your back against the sweaty floor when you get knocked over. Bouncing back is something we all need to master in order to stay and thrive in the fight of life. These 7 Philosophies teach you how to dodge a hit, when to rest, who to have in your corner, how to start the next round, how to pick your coach and how to win."—Back cover.

Out of the ashes : the story of Butterfield &

Company, serving Bermuda since 1918 / by Lucinda Spurling. -- Bermuda : Spy Publishing, [2019], ©2018.

393 pages : illustrations (some colour), facsimiles, maps, portraits (some colour) ; 24 cm

"Out of the Ashes is the story of a pioneering company and the four generations behind the evolution of Butterfield & Company into Bermuda's largest food wholesale distributor, Butterfield & Vallis. It is as much a story about how growth and industry have changed the food business as it is an understanding of how vision and commitment to future possibilities helped a company represent the needs of an isolated island through challenging times in the world, and at home. The title of the book is inspired by the 1982 fires, which destroyed the company warehouse, but also set the stage for the future scale of the company. It was written to commemorate the 100th anniversary of Butterfield & Company in 2018, a century after it signed its first agency agreement to import Peek Frean biscuits in 1918."--Page 2 of dust jacket.

Includes bibliographical references (pages 204-206) and index.

"Bermuda Sentinel: The Royal Naval Base 1795-1950 traces the development of the Bermuda Dockyard from its establishment as a group of wooden buildings to its fully-realised role as a vital link in the British Empire's global network of naval bases. It focuses on Dockyard's architectural and civil engineering history and its role in fitting out, victualling, arming and maintaining warships and associated facilities such as hospitals. In doing so, the book reflects major 19th and 20th century developments in armament, shipbuilding and propulsion and communications. It also shares the remarkable story of officials in Bermuda and London directly involved in the planning, building and successful operation of this massive industrial complex."--Page 2 of jacket.

Island fever--a nation alone, against a pandemic : a story of ruin, resolve & recovery / by Jonathan D. Smith, OBE ; with Lucinda Spurling. -- Hamilton, Bermuda : Ten-Ten Publications, [2025]

291 pages, 8 unnumbered pages of plates : illustrations (some colour) ; 25 cm

"The once-in-a-century Covid-19 pandemic wreaked havoc around the world. At first, Bermuda's geographic isolation was considered beneficial--but the impacts were felt hard and long. The public health crisis merged rapidly with an economic and social welfare catastrophe. The island economy, already struggling after global financial crises, was battered by the pandemic. Decision-makers were pushed to the limit; thousands lost jobs; others lost lives; and many more faced hardship. This was when heroes thrived, ensuring vital services like food and medications, counselling and support at a time of acute adversity. Now the pandemic has passed, Bermuda's saga of resolve and recovery--with an eye on what the future may hold--is told by award-winning author Jonathan D. Smith. Island Fever recounts for generations to come this monumental period of Bermuda's history."--Back cover.

Good news / Yusef Bushara ; book design by Kayley Gibbons ; photographs by Nicola Muirhead, Jayde Gibbons, Kayode George, Flora Chen and Yusef Bushara ; edited by Sion A. Symonds. -- First paperback edition. -- [Paget, Bermuda] : [United States] : [Yusef Bushara], 2025.

85 pages : illustrations ; 25 cm

"Blending poetry and vignette, the collection moves beside idyllic tropes of island life but never settles in their comfort, instead offering a living, breathing Bermuda--one limned in limestone, tender memory, and everyday resistance. These are love letters to the people who shaped him, and to the Bermuda that is and could be. These themes travel with Bushara through the other places he has called home."--Back cover.

"The Basil Letters is part memoir, part political diary and part tribute to a much-loved family pet. Bermuda is most often mentioned in relation to triangles, shorts and pink beaches. However, there is more to it than that. The Basil Letters gives an insight into the day to day running of this small island in the middle of the Atlantic Ocean. From his basket in Government House, Basil lifts the lid on the comings and goings of Bermuda's 'Great and Good' and even some Royals. For a small dog, Basil was blessed with a big personality. In pre-social media days, he catapulted himself into the spotlight just by being Basil. Once in the glare he divided opinion among the Bermudian public. Was he a loveable scamp or a furry menace? x, 246 pages : illustrations, facsimiles, portraits ; 25 cm
Includes bibliographical references (pages 227-230) and index.

"Whilst serving as a Captain on Imperial Airways' prestigious New York-Bermuda service, Alderson reported a number of serious concerns regarding carburettor icing on his Short Empire flying boat Cavalier. His prescience was ignored, and on 21 January 1939, a day after penning a final warning, Cavalier was forced down into the empty wastes of the Atlantic. Due to Alderson's consummate airmanship and the bravery of heroine passenger Edna Watson, ten of the thirteen souls on board survived. Their miraculous rescue by the tanker Esso Baytown, part of a huge international search and rescue effort, after eleven gruelling hours in cold shark-infested waters, dominated the world's headlines."--Page 2 of dust jacket.

Spanish Point tales / by Gina EE Davis ; illustrated by Rhona Pedro. – First edition. – Warwick, Bermuda : Gina E. E. Davis, [2024]

87 pages : colour illustrations ; 24 cm

"In the heart of Pembroke, Bermuda, Spanish Point was a neighborhood that defined the spirit of adventure in the 1960s and 1970s. It was a time when children roamed freely, adults enforced discipline with a firm hand, and mischief was a constant companion. As young children, we spent our summers diving off rocks--and sometimes cliffs--daring to leap as high as 50 feet if we were brave enough. This is a glimpse into the carefree, sometimes reckless, yet unforgettable days of my childhood in Spanish Point."--Back cover.

Around the world on 50 cents / Keith D.

Stuart. – Maitland, FL : Xulon Press, [2025]

xi, 343 pages : colour illustrations ; 22 cm

"Welcome to my brief introduction to an amazing life. Mocking life and defying death I left my home with dreams and not much else. I wanted to conquer the world, and in my way I did. I travelled the world as a hippie hitchhiker, a pirate and a career criminal, before becoming a rock and roll bagpiper who played the world, twice. Surviving streets in foreign countries with no money, I sailed oceans, explored jungles, climbed mountains and loved beautiful women. I worked as a musician, fashion model, bartender and anything that defied death and paid well. After seventeen years of heavy drinking and drug abuse, I laid my broken body down to die at the age of 31. That's when Jesus was finally able to get my attention. Then the adventure really began."--Back cover.

Includes bibliographical references (pages 243-244).

"St. David's Island has always been an intriguing and unique place in Bermuda. This book provides remarkable accounts of St. David's Islanders who persevered through the hardships, challenges, and disrespect of being classed as 'different'. Yet, they significantly contributed to Bermuda's economy while earning a living in interesting ways before, during, and after World War II. Within the pages of this book lie the untold stories of the pilots, farmers, fishermen, merchants, and residents who formed the unique Community of Southside at the southeasternmost end of Bermuda. These stories, often overlooked in history, are not just waiting to be discovered but are also significant in understanding the rich cultural narrative of St. David's Island."--Back cover.
